1.1.37
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. My church is of Me. My people are of Me. All those that meet and speak My name in sincerity of heart, are of Me. I am and I am broad and My shoulders are much bigger than you know. I am big. I am broad and My body is big. My body of believers in Me is so much bigger than you know.

2. My church is a place of My joy, joy Ted, joy—when people assemble in My name, even for only a few minutes, I am glad. I come, I come in presence and power even then, to those who want Me. They rush and they miss so much of Me, but I am there and I impart to them of Me what they will let Me.

3. Oh Ted, much change, many changes, changes in music, changes in form and format and who does what and how. Change, all change. Many changes, for I am moving and guiding the hands of those that let Me.

4. Many are dissatisfied with worship of Me like they know it. Proliferation of means and fashions of worship will explode. Ted, I am not little, I am big and those that constrict Me will I constrict. Those that free Me to be Me will I bring freedom to and explode them. I give freedom. I am a freedom-giver to those who glorify Me. Much change. Much change. Much change. Standard pat normal services, of all the same shape and size and format, will diminish in the cataclysmic changes I am bringing to My earth and My people.

5. I want to glorify. I will glorify My people that sit at My feet and then do as I ask, I say, I show them—My bidding done My way Ted. New music, new times, new formats, new freedom. Tell them it's all about to change and those that must keep everything one way—the same—will be disappointed and even shattered some, for I am change, I grow, I advance, I mature, I nurture and those that are stagnant in their thinking and worship will wonder how I can be in these changes. But Ted, I am. I am the catalyst. I am the power, I am the might, I am the Son, I am the Father, I am the Spirit and I, we—as one—are moving in concert, in oneness, to bring about Father's will.

6. Oh, many will challenge the new things I do, but I'm used to that, and fail they will, for their power is flesh and I am Spirit.

7. Freedom Ted, Freedom, Freedom. Freedom for those who have been told My world works one way when it truly works another. I am the God of My world and I will be raised up like never before.

8. Conflict Ted, that's why the conflict. Some won't receive Me and as I move and as I am lifted up, great miracles, great positions of power through Me for My people. Yet great conflict and forms of warfare people aren't used to or trained in.

9. Ted, that's why I have often spoken to teaching My people to pray and mature and know Me for themselves. The escalation of conflict is pending even now, to levels you're unaware of—confusion and commotion and discombobulation of all sorts, in all areas, yielding torment to some and discomfort to all.

10. Ted, that's why communication systems of My love must be established in power, in love, in surrender, in sharing—in sharing and not isolated in self-preservation. My body must work like My body—as one—as one. As one must My body learn to trust, share, communicate and commune together.

11. My body cannot fight My body. My body must mature and create together as one, for one and each other, simultaneously, in concert and congruence, in value systems that don't compete but compliment.

12. My body must learn of Me and My lips, My words that fall from My lips and emanate from My heart. My body must learn what My body is. My body is not their little group they meet with. My body is global and My body must be interested in My whole body, and not limit their scope of knowledge or prayers, to their little group. I am growing up My people and calling them to do business globally, to do ministry globally, to pray globally, to think globally, to live globally, and not remain in their little world of comfort and false peace. Some are great and so big and so mature, and some are kindergarteners Ted.

13. With no regard to age, some are toddlers and some are pitiful and pathetic, for they've not chosen to know Me through My Word, and now My words come to them, for them, and they cannot even recognize their source or their meaning or their implications or what to do with them. I yearn for the babes who chose to be ignorant when I am all around and I come and I call and I woo, and yet they waste day after day, hour after hour, with electronic devices and things that rob them of operating in their own life—being them—who I designed them to be, wasting away, in ignorance and apathy.

14. I call you to blow the trumpet in Zion, in the Zion of every person, and wake up all you can to the impending disasters that I will use to bring change to My church, to My people, to their value systems, and use of their time.

15. I change and I move and earth changes and Ted, much and mighty, great change, and so few are ready for Me in all that I am doing and ready to do. My plans, My armies, My warriors are ready, but I desire so many more to be ready and participate with Me in what I do. I call, I come. I invite. I nourish and I yield Myself open for others to come to Me like never before in history Ted, never before. I am open for all who come and want to drink of true life, true life, true life in Me.

16. Relationships and friendships must increase, of Me, increase. Isolation and disadvantaged loners must come into relationship with Me and others of Me and not be alone. Relationship, relationships of freedom and joy and laughter and nurture and knowing how I am, even in times of turmoil and conflict and details of life not as standard fare.

17. That's why Ted, I spoke of generational friendships and how all must know each other and know their kids and how networks must arise of those with eyes to see how I am working and designing dimensions and arrays of relationships in peace and power and might and glory.

18. Love Me. Love people.
Teach and train, and touch all who will let you.
Teach and train, and touch all who will let you.
Tell them to teach and train and touch all who will let them.
And teach and train and touch all to teach and train and touch others for Me, in My name, for My purposes, for My design, for their design, for Me.

19. Networks of isolationists churches will no longer be. Ostracized no more will anyone be. My family must operate as one. One Ted, one. As one. Each must understand their purpose and function and all must understand others. Isolationistic policies which exclude and delude the adherers must cease and networks of relationships where love is the conduit of Me and My words and My power must come about.

20. Create them. Create them Ted. The substance is there. The raw materials are in your hand, in your heart, in your spirit, in your call. Ted, create, create, create, create. I've told you so often I will create through you if you let Me and Ted, the time is now and not later. Go create and speak of how these relational networks will work when you are with people of Me, and trustable mature leaders-followers—distinction them not—but operate in Me and create and let them create and fashion as My hands fashion through them the relational networks that provide generational support for foundations of power and might and friendships in Me that transcend selfish purposes and the little worlds all, most all, live in now.

21. Raise them up, raise them up, raise them up.

22. The families, the networks, the power—Ted, destroy the works of the enemy in those who have so much power in Me, but are deluded into thinking they are powerless and walk in fear and timidity and tiptoe around the imagined feelings of others, hoping to not offend, hoping to be one's friend, and be in someone's inner circle.

23. Blast the thinking which constricts and keeps people small and operating as lifelessly as possible. I am life and I came that they—all—might have abundant life. Yet zombie-like so many walk around so self-centered and self-focused they cannot see My hand, My family, My provision, and My design for them in My big world.

24. Transcend them from their little world into My big world and help them see themselves in portraits of power—yielding My power—in maturity and wisdom and friendliness of Me, with Me, in Me, for My purposes, and being connected with people in love all over My globe, over My earth, all over My family.

25. Ted, get them off their dead ass and into real life and cause them to laugh again and have life in Me and not TV. Get them into life and love and activate their gifts as they seek Me and come to life.

26. They are not powerless. They are powerful. You've said that. You've said those words and taught that in Tulsa and New York and Ted, you'll teach that all over the world as you call My people to life, life, life and living life the way I designed it for them and not mealy-mouth, little pipsqueaks, afraid of institutional policies that constrict, mandated by the selfish self-perpetuating—carried out by people who say they know Me but never heard My heartbeat, never placed their head on My breast and felt My heartbeat next to their heartbeat

27. Ted, confidence—confident My people and pour life and living back into the dead dry bones and emotions of My powerful people who think all will be as it will be, and they have no voice or power to change it. Ted, lies, all lies. They can change and they can change their world and they can change the world of so many, thousands, thousands, thousands, if they will but hear My voice through you and these words and those that will answer this call, My call to life. I call you to live. I call you now. I call you loud and clear and I call you to change and accept change and open to My heart and My heartbeat and My call to maturity and My nurturing of you and My guidance and Me coming through you.

28. I call you to think. I call you to life. I call you to use the tools I placed in you and gave you to think and evaluate and ponder My words, and move in My power to discard untruth and exchange it for truth.

29. I am moving and creating networks of relationships of power that no one has seen and can't imagine how will operate so, because it's Me and Mine and it's what I am doing and moving and you must move if you will move, you must open to Me now if you will open. I am moving and I am giving to you and I am asking, begging, pleading with you to open to Me and move toward Me and let Me give you of Myself for you to operate masterfully in My skill, in My kingdom, so you can operate in that kingdom and do My purposes and call and come and bring many with you while you operate in life abundantly and in networks of relational power, in Me, that never existed before.

30. Think a new thought. Do a new thing—surrender totally, in totality and exchange the authoritarian dogma of constriction for the liberty of freedom I hold in My hand for all who will grasp it.

31. New paradigms are an understatement Ted. Massive renewal, restructuring of My operations to facilitate My movements into areas I have yielded dominance to, to others, for a season.

32. Ted, your time is now—mess with real estate no more. Mess with these other things no more. Ted, networks of Me and relationships of power that operate throughout My global family are paramount importance, mobilizing My dead to life and bringing the powerless to power, in joy and laughter and friendships and generational bindings of My sinew, to do and be My people and bring My will to earth.

33. Now subdue and think not that you are a peacemaker right now, for you bring a sword to divide the truth from the untruth—and those that will hear and receive and obey and act in truth—from those that want to remain in the world constricted and operate by others' mandates, rather than Mine.

34. Be surprised not who helps you and who desires to destroy you, for many wanted to destroy Me. But Ted, I came forth in light, life and power of the Most High and that's what I'm doing with you and all who want to and will participate in the cataclysmic things I am doing—big things in My big world. That's why little people in little worlds—hearts will fail them. Oh Ted, unnecessary, so unnecessary that is.

35. I offer so much. I am the ram. I am the I am. I am He who is and was and is to come, and I am coming like never before in power and majesty and splendor and all who want to ride with Me and My army will ride with life that little people in little worlds know nothing of—living totally subservient to the kingdom of man.

36. I come, I call, I beg, I plead, and you do also. Now be creative in your massive communications that I bring you and call and plead and paint them in My powerful armies of freedom, bringing freedom to all they come in contact with, in great skill and power and wisdom.

37. Power Ted, you wanted to know where the power was—you asked Me. You know Me and you know I am power and yet I have waited so long to move like you have sensed—Me touching you.

38. Ted, power—power—power—the world has yet to see Me and My armies of love operate in the power of love to do what I want done, revealing Me, revealing My Son, revealing My Spirit, for who I am and what we have done.

39. Ted, call, come, call, come, come more and leave the other things to others who will busy themselves with the results of their choices. You choose Me, the better—the better things—the better life—the bigger world—and bring all with you who will let you.

40. I thank you. Now go and grow and advance and mature and laugh and build and enjoy the creativity, the relational networks of My family that must be birthed in realms of Me and come forth and transcend all other powers, in Me, for them, for Me.

41. I thank you. I thank you. I thank you. And thank all who will read and ponder these words and study them and be open to Me to speak to them, directly, Myself, about how they can open to Me more and participate in the relational networks of My big family in My big world.

42. I thank you. I thank you. I thank you.
